

Moravian Holy Land Tour Suggestions for Things to Bring with You

- ...clothing that cover your shoulders and knees (some religious sites have strict dress codes), comfortable walking shoes, jacket or sweater for cold evenings, hat to keep you warm or provide shade, gloves, sunglasses, sunscreen, umbrella or other rainwear.
- ...avoid tools with sharp edges; and do not accept items or packages from people we do not know for transport in or out of Tel Aviv airport.
- ...carry electronic items in your hand luggage for safety and security.
- ...consider disabling internet access on your smart devices until you are in locations that offer Wi-Fi. Check with your mobile phone service provider regarding roaming charges.
- ...follow TSA guidelines for a list of what is allowed in carry-on luggage.
{3-1-1 for carry-ons ⇒ 3-ounces or smaller containers of liquid or gel, in 1 quart-size clear plastic zip-top bag, 1 bag per traveler placed in the security bin.}
- ...in bringing cash, consider including smaller denominations to enable you to make purchases with exact change at some locations.
- ...for the visit to the Dead Sea, you may wish to bring swimwear, water shoes, and towel.
- ...consider leaving room in your luggage for purchases along the way. Also, you may wish to arrange with vendors for purchased items to be shipped directly to your home.
- ...many transatlantic airlines still allow passengers to check one free piece of luggage weighing up to 50 lbs. However, checking a second bag may cost $75 to $100.
